

A close-up photograph of a wicker basket filled with vibrant autumn flowers, including red and yellow chrysanthemums. Several orange pumpkins are visible in the foreground and background, resting on a plaid fabric. The scene is warmly lit, evoking a cozy fall atmosphere.

God Finishes What He Starts

*being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:
Philippians 1:6 KJV*

SecretPlaceFaith

Friend, are you spending your days wondering if God is still working in your life?

Philippians 1:6 reminds us that our Heavenly Father began a good work in us, and He will continue that work until the day of Jesus Christ. He is constantly refining us and making us more like Him each day. Even when we cannot see the progress, we can remain confident in His faithfulness.

Prayer:

A decorative border at the top of the card featuring a variety of autumn-themed elements. It includes bright yellow sunflowers with dark brown centers, several red apples, and scattered orange, red, and yellow leaves. The background is a soft, light yellow.

God Is Always Working For His Children

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

Romans 8:28 KJV

SecretPlaceFaith

Friend, are you struggling to see God working in your circumstances?

Romans 8:28 reminds us that God is always working for the good of His children. Everything may not be perfect, but God has a purpose bigger than we can see in this moment. Life doesn't always unfold as we expect it to. Some days are up, some are down, but we can always trust God's wisdom and purpose from now to eternity. Hold on to hope. His name is Jesus!

Prayer:

A photograph of three lit candles in white and orange holders, with several pumpkins and autumn leaves in the background.

God Is The God Of Preparation

For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

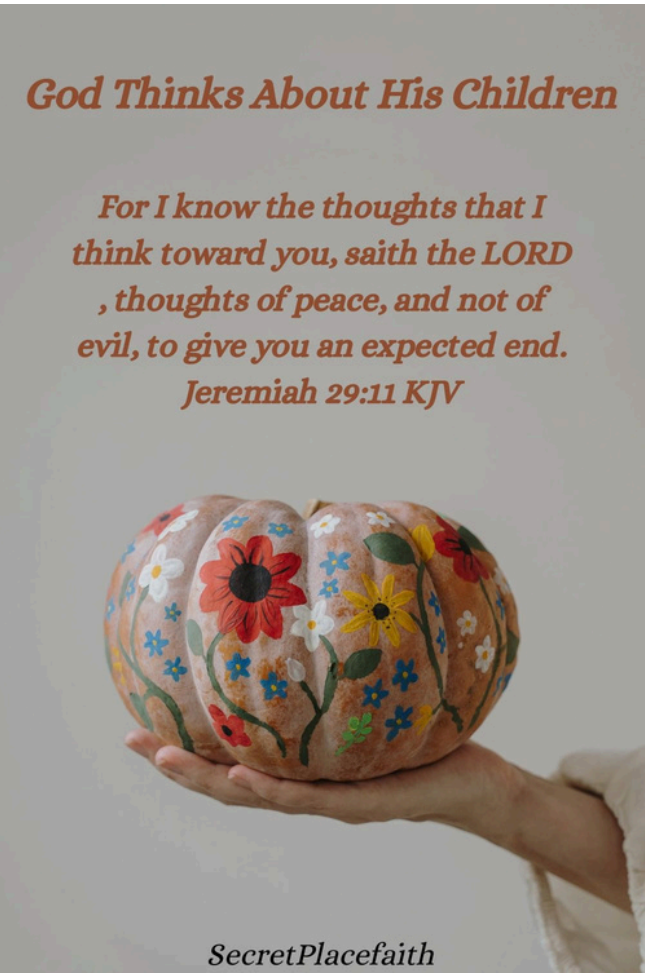

Isaiah 64:4 KJV

SecretPlaceFaith

Friend, are you in a season of waiting on God?

Isaiah 64:4 is a beautiful reminder to each of us that God has wonderful things prepared for those who wait for Him. God's wisdom and preparing hand reach far beyond what we can see or understand. I pray this Scripture is an encouragement to continue trusting Him while you wait. What God reveals in His perfect timing will be worth every minute of your journey.

Prayer:

A photograph of a hand holding a small pumpkin decorated with colorful floral patterns.

God Thinks About His Children

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

Jeremiah 29:11 KJV

SecretPlacefaith

Friend, have you been in your storm so long that it feels like God has forgotten you?

Jeremiah 29:11 reminds us that God's thoughts are always on His people. God may feel far from your mess right now, but He has never left your side. He is thinking peace over your life, and His ending for this trial is perfectly prepared to bring you closer to Him. This Scripture reminds us of God's faithfulness and encourages us to seek Him even in seasons of uncertainty. Don't give up. Press on and stand in the promises of God.

Prayer: